Went to the Limestone Quarry in the morning and collected from mid and 1900 and collected from the Limestone Quarry Limestone was 2 ft, nearly 30 in.

at the first mention of our foreboding, she expressed her profound grief; she said she had used the best of her power to keep her mind from dwelling on the subject, but she could not do so, and she was now in a state of great distress. She said she had been thinking of the many good people who had died in the same manner, and she was now in a state of great distress.
